

The government has no right to interfere with radio choices. We are supposed to have a free market and limiting satellite radio should not be allowed.